EDUCATED HEN

Corbin, Ky. Jan. 21. The whole neighborhood at Woodbine three miles from Corbin, on the L. & N. railroad, is excited today over an egg laid by a hen belonging to Mrs. Nettie Faulkner, and on which appeared the words in script in brownish letters on the shell: "Nettie, January 25, 1921." The handwriting has not been identified as of any member of the family nor does it appear to come from a lead pencil or ink, but is plainly visible, worked into an apparently part of the hardened shell of the egg. How the letters got there is a mystery. No explanation has yet been found. Neighbors viewed the egg today. Mrs. Faulkner, family and friends are greatly excited over it. Photographs were taken, and one offer of $25 for the strange trophy was refused. The egg, after being shown in Woodbine, will be brought to Corbin Saturday and exhibited at a local drug store. Part of the egg was soft, but the letters appear, it is said, on the hardshell part. It was not broken, is of normal size, and was taken from the nest by Mrs. Faulkner herself, who was first to discover the inscription. Louisville Herald Jan. 21.

The above article is vouched for by Mrs. Zelma Monahan, of Woodbine, in a letter written to her mother, Mrs. Mahala Jones.

Evans Threw His Crutches Away

Rheumatism and Other Troubles Overcome by Tanlac — Nothing Else Ever Helped Him.

"I had one of the worst cases of rheumatism a man ever had, but after six bottles of Tanlac I threw my crutches away," said Thomas Evans, 119 West Street, Akron Ohio.

"My feet were so swollen at times with rheumatism that I could not get my shoes on," he continued "and frequently my knee became so swollen I could not get my clothes on I finally became so helpless I could not work regularly or sleep to do any good I took all kinds of medicines but my troubles stayed right with me. A stranger saw me on the street limping one day and asked me what the trouble was I told him rheumatism and he said was in the same fix himself until he started taking Tanlac.

"He seemed so positive that Tanlac would help me that I began taking the medicine. The first bottle didn't seem to do me any good, but I stuck to it and the second bottle began to straighten me out and by the time I had finished the third bottle I was actually back at work again and haven't lost a day since.

"I've taken six bottles now and I feel as well as I ever did in my life. I haven't a sign of rheumatism about me and feel so strong and well that I am able to do as much work as I ever did in my life. My stomach is also in perfect condition and I can eat anything I want without bad aftereffects.

"I really feel like a brand-new man, and I hope some day to meet that stranger who advised me to take Tanlac so I can thank him for the advice he gave me.

Tanlac is sold in Mt. Vernon by Chas. C. Davis; in Brodhead by the Brodhead Pharmacy, and in Livingston by R. G. Webb; in Burr by W. M. Owens.

A Good Selection

Judge Bethurum, candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Judge has selected the Hon. Leonard F. Meece, present Superintendent of Schools of Pulaski county, as his campaign manager and chairman of his district committee. Judge Bethurum has shown good judgment and political wisdom in the selection of a manager for his coming race, as Mr. Meece is one of the shrewdest politicians in this judicial district, and possesses great power and skill as an organizer.

Mr. Meece is a clean, high class, scholarly and forceful young man. His ability as an educator is second to none in the State. Under his splendid management, the schools of Pulaski county have grown, until now this county can boast of an educational growth and enthusiasm that is not excelled by any county in the State. In addition to his thorough educational qualification, Mr. Meece has the advantage of being a trained executive.

Mr. Meece will be the new Superintendent. He has no opposition for re-election. — The Commonwealth.

To the Republicans of the 28th Judicial District of Kentucky:

I have been chosen as campaign manager for Judge B. J. Bethurum in his race for Republican nomination for Circuit Judge of this judicial district.

I accept this honor because I believe in so doing I am only availing myself of an opportunity to be of real service to the people of the district. There is no office in this district that is of greater importance than the high office of Circuit Judge, and the people should use the most diligent care in selecting the officer who is to fill this important post.

In Judge B. J. Bethurum we have a man who has been tried and found entirely satisfactory from every standpoint. First of all he is a Christian gentleman and a champion of the right. He stands for law and order and is fearless in the discharge of his duty. He is an able lawyer and a just and impartial judge.

Judge Bethurum is a true and loyal Republican and never strays from the fold. He believes in party loyalty and party regularity and in the races between the parties, he is always found in the thickest of the fight, yet as an officer in the discharge of his duty he knows no man's politics or his religion.

These sterling qualities of Judge Bethurum have endeared him to the hearts of the people of his district and assures him of re-endorsement by the Republicans.

I enter upon the discharge of my duties, confidently feeling that Judge Bethurum will be nominated by an overwhelming majority at the coming August Primary. And I earnestly appeal to all who believe in strict enforcement of law from a just and impartial standpoint to support him.

Dear Editor:
If you will allow me a little space in the dear old home paper I would like to send a few lines. It has been about fourteen months since we left the beautiful hills of dear old Kentucky and came to this state to live.

We live in McLean Co., said to be the best county in the state. It is almost a level prairie divided into well kept farms with modern homes, good schools and churches. The soil is black and fertile. Grains of all kinds grow well, also fruits but very little attention is given to the latter except berries of various kinds.

We all like this country very well. We have good roads and traveling is done with much more ease and comfort than it is there but we haven't reached the "honey pond" yet. It's farther on.

Grandmother Used Mustard Blisters to Relieve Congested Conditions

Grandmother also walked to town if she wished to do any shopping. Do you wish to return to Grandmother's times or take an elevated car? This comparison is brought before you for the simple purpose of illustrating why people of to-day that are up-to-date use MINTOL in preference to using mustard plasters smelly mustard creams.

For colds in the head, catarrh, grip, bronchitis or pneumonia simply apply a hot, wet towel to the throat and lungs for five minutes then apply MINTOL, rubbing thoroughly in for five minutes and cover the parts with a hot, dry flannel, so arranged as to allow the vapors arising from the MINTOL to be inhaled. This treatment will be found as much an improvement over the old-fashioned mustard blisters and creams as the elevated is over walking.

NOTICE: MINTOL is the latest scientific discovery for the treatment of all congested conditions such as occur in Spanish Influenza, Grip, pneumonia and Bronchial affections. It kills the influenza and grippe germ and acts as an antiseptic in healing inflamed throat or nostrils. For hoarseness, a little of the MINTOL applied to the back of the tongue will give instant relief, 35c. 60c and $1.25 a jar. If your druggist cannot supply you we will send you a jar on receipt of price. The Home Relief Laboratories, Boston, Mass. It is dispensed by Pioneer Drug Store Mt. Vernon Kentucky.

Yet with all of its good roads and nice homes and rich rolling prairies our mind wanders to scenes of our earlier days where the rocks and hills look rough and rugged to many people but to me they are not only beautiful but show the handwork of the great Creator who had created only the beautiful and good. Now this does not mean that we are homesick but that we haven't forgotten home and friends.

We are always glad to get the Signal. It's like getting a letter from home. It is perused by each member of the family and it's the one who gets it first that gets to read it first but that one is not allowed to tell what he reads or read aloud as ever one wants to have the pleasure of reading the news himself or herself. We read the home news first, then begin to look for the letters. Level Green comes first naturally as it is the place where so many pleasant memories of our home and school days linger. Of course there are sad recollections too, as in all our lives, for, as the poet said, "There was never a life so happy but has had its time of tears." Wish the correspondent from Level Green would send a letter each week.

We read all the letters. We're glad to hear from Livingston again: we don't know so many people there now, but attended one very pleasant term of school there a few years ago under the tutelage of Prof. Dickerson whose death we hated so much to read recently. I think the correspondents from Hopewell and Withers are old school mates of mine. I wish some one at Wadd and Mareburg would write every week.

I expect this long letter of not much importance will find a resting place in the waste basket. If not I may write again someday.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. J. L. Livesay.
